

MR. AND MRS. DENTON COLE
... Honored by Lodge

Pocahontas Lodge Installs New Officer Panel for 1958

Mrs. Denton Cole, 22005 Anza, was installed as Pocahontas of Winnebago Council 240, Degree of Pocahontas, on Jan. 22 at the Temple Menorah Hall.

Highlight of the evening was a mock wedding since the new Pocahontas and her husband were celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary. Kitty Downing presented the speaking leaf to out-going Pocahontas Eleanor Kline.

Deputy Great Pocahontas Mae Conley presided over the meeting attended by more than 150 guests. Betty Greenwood and Virginia Byler, as Great Mishinawas, presented the incoming officers for installation.

They were June Shipley, great first aid; Ida Donovan, great second counselor; Mamie Bodenhamer, past great Pocahontas; deputies installed were Ina O'Larry, Freida Zumberg, Anna Wells, Dorothy Strubhart, Tence Nelson, Ruth Bachman, Grace Smith, Ruby Chance, Lydia Kiblin, Betty Bolt, Lou Dietz, Ruth Bantam, and James O'Larry.

Twenty-three lodge members with Past Great Pocahontas Pauline Ellison of Indiana escorted the following to their stations: Katie Lewis, Powhatan; Eleanor Kling, prophetess; Jessie Bennett, Wenonah, and Amy Cole, Pocahontas.

Others installed were Margie Kronnick, Hilda Czulegger, Olga Miers, Sylvia Williamson, Ruby Hedley, Georgia Hunnell, Charlotte Annabell, Frances Theil, Ruby Rivers, Louise Dayton, Marie Debellas, Irene Robertson, Virginia Beam, Dorothy Fallon, Effie Anabell, Allene Bennett, Frances Armstrong, Bertha Tiers, Gabriel Bishop and Gladys Ross.

Mrs. Cole introduced her family, including her husband, her sons, her mother, Mrs. Pearl Hartman, and a sister, fence Nelsin, from Sacramento. Refreshments were served following the meeting in the hall decorated in the wedding motif.

Mrs. Cortum Will Head Auxiliary

Mrs. Don Cortum of Redondo Beach was elected to the office of president-elect of the Auxiliary of the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Society at its February meeting at a San Pedro restaurant.

Mrs. Cortum, who has served as treasurer for the past three years, was elected to the office after the group had accepted the resignation of Mrs. Arthur D. Pedersen of Rolling Hills.

Other business included the decision to present $500 of the auxiliary's $5000 pledge to the Bay-Harbor Osteopathic Hospital at this time. Land is now being purchased for the much needed $1,000,000 hospital.

Mrs. Otto Franzich, Gardena, president of the auxiliary, announced the purchase of two lace tablecloths for the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons, Los Angeles. The cloths will be used at the open house, an annual event at the college.

Mrs. Edwin H. Riedell of Whittier, president-elect of the Auxiliary to the California Osteopathic Assn., was guest for the evening.

PLAN BARBECUE

Mixing edibles and enterprise, the Accordion Guild of California will hold a barbecue-meeting at the Lippert Studio, 11151 Freeman Ave., Inglewood, at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, with this area represented by Mrs. Bettie Thomas of Torrance.

Mrs. Ferrin Presides at Lodge Event

Mrs. Edna Ferrin, noble grand of Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 presided over the first official meeting yesterday in the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Final plans for the Lawrence Welk Dance participation were made. Mrs. Pat Young is in charge of the event as she is the chairman of the goodfellowship of the lodge and the benefit received from the proceeds of the tickets will go to the fund for the old people's home at Saratoga.

Another highlight of the meeting was the hamper shower. The hamper is being filled by members of the lodge and at a latter date will be awarded to the person holding the lucky number. Proceeds from this venture will go towards the building fund of the lodge. The goodfellowship committee, under the supervision of the State President Mrs. Esther Leventin, are raising money to go to the individual lodge for a building or improvement fund and not for any of the state institutions.

Mrs. Katherine Vash and Mrs. Juanita McNew were the hostess of the evening.

Camp Fire Girls Study 'Growing Up'

"I Am Growing Up" was the theme of a ceremonial of the Okciyapi Winuke Camp Fire Girls at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Dean White, 1033 Eighth St., Hermosa Beach, on Monday, Feb. 3.

The girls sang "Make New Friends." Linda Kern read "A Credo for Camp Fire Girls." Pantomimes of different phases of growing up were enacted by the members using Indian symbols. A discussion of how they have grown and changed since becoming Camp Fire Girls in 1956 followed.

Honor beads were presented by Mrs. White and Mrs. Virginia Kern. They were sewn on "grounup" paper dolls. Trail seeker charms were earned by Angie Manjarrez, Sally Marcus and Sandra Scrivens.

Recipients of woodgatherer rings and certificates were Janet White, Dawna Riggs, Vickie Thompson, Carol Ellis, Linda Kern and Lynda Barber.

Members of the group are Jennifer Cable, Janet White, Dawna Riggs, Angie Manjarrez, Linda Kern, Lynda Barber, Anne Yokoyama, Carol Ellis, Peggy Taylor, Gwen Glenn, Sally Marcus, Sandra Scrivens and Vickie Thompson.

Mrs. Robt. Cage Contributes Favorite Party Cake Recipe

American food at its best is being enjoyed by Lucienne Elshout of Belgium, who is making her home with the Robert Cages, 17326 Glenburn, while attending North High School. Lucienne is here under the American Field Service plan.

Besides becoming familiar with America's educational program, Lucienne is being versed in social activities of the community in the company of her foster-sister, Barbara Cage, also a senior at North High School.

In today's favorite recipe column, Mrs. Cage gives one of her popular dessert recipes, which the two 18-year-old seniors have found most popular with their party friends.

Mrs. Cage is not only busy making life pleasant for her two daughters, but she also serves as Harbor District Cookie Coordinator for the Los Angeles Council, Girl Scouts. She holds membership in the California National Fuchsia society and is an active member of the North High School PTA.

Mr. Cage is an inspector for the Trans-World Airlines. Even when there isn't a party, Mr. Cage joins with the girls in "petitioning" for one of Mrs. Cage's "Fresh Apple Pecan Cakes."
